Today Art Miami Fair Director and Partner Nick Korniloff announced that Art Miami LLC has signed a multi-year agreement with Resorts World International to host the 28th Edition of Art Miami and its sister Fair CONTEXT Art Miami during Miami Art Week 2017 and beyond.

“It is now time for us to create a new opportunity for our organization, our clients and our community as we move both Art Miami and CONTEXT Art Miami to one of the most prestigious and well known waterfront locations in the City of Miami; the Resorts World Miami Property (the former site of The Miami Herald) on Biscayne Bay. We are confident that our new location will offer an unprecedented level of convenience, ambience and amenities for all collectors that attend Miami Art Week”, said Nick Korniloff Executive Vice President, Fair Director and Partner of Art Miami.

“Over the last decade Art Miami and Context were part of the Midtown / Wynwood Arts district. We are proud of the relationships we built and the contributions that our organizations fairs provided in helping establish and creating international recognition for the the Midtown / Wynwood arts district. We congratulate the land owners, developers and business owners on making their vision become a reality and an asset for our beloved Miami community,” continued Korniloff.
